Fairy-tale of Winter

*October with the north wind...
November with the icy frost...
December with the goddess of winter who dons her white robe*

*A child in the snow-filled forest walked out of a wooden house
with his warmth for his friends
he brought.*

LET'S MAKE SACRIFICES
TOGETHER

The rabbits answered first.

The dozing bear was also poked out of his burrow.

*Amidst the chatter and laughter,
the snow princess was born.*

Night descended.

Fairies appeared in the moonlight

What a cute sight!

Let's awaken her.

The fairies' songs sounded in the forest.

One, two, three.
The queen princess opened her eyes

The happily thanked the faeries

Remember,

you will obtain true life only with a generous heart

Whooooo?
Can't you
breathe?

Of course
that place
is just on the other side of the forest.

Good.

After crossing the forest and darkness

The snow princess came to the front of the wooden house.

Knock knock—

would you like to become my prince?

In that moment, the fantasy became reality.

The year 2012 has been said to be Spring in the north, a hot fire in Summer with the green trees,
Autumn with fields of golden wheat.

She looked forward to all this

*Ice melted into water.
The goddess of winter was preparing to leave.*

Me

I want to stay

Don't worry
about
me

I will become human

*I want
to see the four princesses*

*Not just a few
what-so-ever*

*Once the first butterfly perched on the window ledge the snow-
being could no longer walk out of the wooden house...*

He will grow up.

will leave his home.

will leave to forget

*Spring comes to the river
places full of flowers*

I cannot grasp all this! I am only your snow princess!

If I am forgotten,

I will cease to exist.

*In your hearts, can you leave a tiny place for that last drop of crystal
tear?*

*Humans who constantly
grow and change*
